

Query ID: test2227

Query Text: who did the dominican republic gain its independence from

Retrieved Documents:

- | | | |
|---|------------|--|
| 1 | doc77476 | Dominican War of Independence. The Dominican Independence War gave the Dominican Republic autonomy from Haiti on February 27, 1844. Before the war, the island of Hispaniola had been united under the H |
| 0 | doc110278 | Dominican Republic. On February 27, 1844, the Trinitarios (the members of La Trinitaria), declared the independence from Haiti. They were backed by Pedro Santana, a wealthy cattle rancher from El Seib |
| 0 | doc77477 | Dominican War of Independence. At the time Haiti had been more economically and militarily powerful and had a population 8 to 10 times larger than the former Spanish colony, having been the richest co |
| 0 | doc110272 | Dominican Republic. The newly independent republic ended two months later under the Haitian government led by Jean-Pierre Boyer.[55] |
| 0 | doc77485 | Dominican War of Independence. Eventually the Haitian government became extremely unpopular throughout the country. The Dominican population grew increasingly impatient with Haiti's poor management an |
| 0 | doc2353274 | History of the Dominican Republic. Attempts to redistribute land conflicted with the system of communal land tenure (terrenos comuneros), which had arisen with the ranching economy, and newly emancipa |
| 0 | doc1124972 | Americas. Decolonization of the Americas began with the American Revolution and the Haitian Revolution in the late 1700s. This was followed by numerous Latin American wars of independence in the early |
| 0 | doc463512 | Spanish Empire. Santo Domingo likewise declared independence in 1821 and began negotiating for inclusion in Bolivar's Republic of Gran Colombia, but was quickly occupied by Haiti, which ruled it until |
| 0 | doc110255 | Dominican Republic. Christopher Columbus landed on the island on December 5, 1492, which the native Taino people had inhabited since the 7th century. The colony of Santo Domingo became the site of the |
| 0 | doc77487 | Dominican War of Independence. In 1843 the revolution made a breakthrough: they worked with a liberal Haitian party that overthrew President Jean-Pierre Boyer. However, the Trinitarios'[5] work in the |

Non-retrieved Relevant Documents: